1 (Case called)

2 MR. TURNER: Good morning, your Honor. George Turner
3 for the government.

4 THE COURT: Good morning, Mr. Turner.

5 MS. DeBLASIO: Good morning, your Honor. Alessandra
6 DeBlasio, on behalf of Mr. Vincent Ghahremani.

7 THE COURT: Good morning to the two of you, as well.
8 I am sorry to keep you all waiting.

9 So my understanding is that the defendant,
10 Mr. Ghahremani, wishes to change his plea and enter a plea of 11 guilty to Count One of the indictment, 15 Cr. 793.

12 Is that correct, Mr. Ghahremani?

13 MS. DeBLASIO: That's correct, your Honor.

14 THE COURT: So before I accept your guilty plea, 15 Mr. Ghahremani, I need to ask you certain questions to ensure 16 that you are pleading guilty because you are in fact guilty --
17 you can sit down for one moment. I will ask you to stand in a
18 couple seconds, but for now you can sit -- to ensure that you
19 are pleading guilty because you are in fact guilty and not for 20 some other reason; to ensure that you know the rights that you
21 would be giving up by pleading guilty; and that you understand
22 the potential consequences of a guilty plea.

23 It is critical that you understand each of my 24 questions before you answer the questions, so if there is 25 something that you do not understand, I want you to let me know

hbk2ghaP kjc

1 right away so that your lawyer or I could explain it to you
2 more fully. And if at any point you would like to speak with 3 your lawyer for whatever reason, just let me know and I will be 4 happy to give you however much time you wish to speak with her.

5 Do you understand?

6 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, I do, your Honor.

7 THE COURT: Could you just move the microphone a
8 little closer.

9 THE DEFENDANT: Sure.

10 THE COURT: Now I will ask you to stand so that my 11 deputy, Ms. Smallman, can administer the oath to you.

12 (Defendant sworn)

13 THE COURT: Now you may be seated.

14 You are now under oath, which means that if you answer
15 any of my questions falsely, you may be subject to prosecution
16 for the separate crime of perjury.

17 Do you understand that?

18 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, I do, your Honor.

19 THE COURT: What is your full name?

20 THE DEFENDANT: Vincent Ghahremani.

21 THE COURT: How old are you?

22 THE DEFENDANT: I am becoming 45 in November 23.

23 THE COURT: Happy almost birthday.

24 How far did you go in school?

25 THE DEFENDANT: I have graduated from university.

hbk2ghaP kjc

1           THE COURT: And where did you go to university?

2           THE DEFENDANT: In Norway.

3           THE COURT: Have you ever been treated or hospitalized
4 for any mental illness?

5           THE DEFENDANT: No, your Honor.

6           THE COURT: Are you now or have you recently been 7 under the care of a doctor or a psychiatrist?

8           THE DEFENDANT: No, your Honor.

9           THE COURT: And have you ever been treated or 10 hospitalized for any type of addiction, including drug or 11 alcohol addiction?

12          THE DEFENDANT: No, your Honor.

13          THE COURT: Have you taken any drugs, medicine, pills,
14 or had any alcohol in the last 48 hours?

15          THE DEFENDANT: No, your Honor.

16          THE COURT: Is your mind clear today?

17          THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

18          THE COURT: Do you understand what's happening here
19 today?

20          THE DEFENDANT: Yes, I do.

21          THE COURT: Ms. DeBlasio, have you discussed this
22 matter with Mr. Ghahremani?

23          MS. DeBLASIO: Yes, I have, your Honor. I'm not sure
24 if it is worth putting on the record, but he is a native Farsi
25 and Norwegian speaker. English is his third or fourth

hbk2ghaP kjc

1 language, but he understands it perfectly. And just so there
2 is no issue in the future, we always speak in English.

3 THE COURT: I appreciate your making a record of that 4 and can confirm that certainly, based on my colloquy with 5 Mr. Ghahremani, he seems quite adept in English, so I have no
6 concerns, and he has confirmed that he can understand.

7 Is it the case that you are able to and comfortable
8 speaking in English?

9 THE DEFENDANT: No, I'm fine.

10 THE COURT: Great.

11 So, Ms. DeBlasio, you have discussed this matter with 12 Mr. Ghahremani?

13 MS. DeBLASIO: Yes, your Honor.

14 THE COURT: And does he understand the rights that he
15 would be giving up by pleading guilty?

16 MS. DeBLASIO: He does, your Honor.

17 THE COURT: And in your judgment, is he capable of 18 understanding the nature of these proceedings?

19 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

20 THE COURT: Does either counsel have any doubt as to 21 the defendant's competence to plead guilty at this time?

22 MS. DeBLASIO: I have no doubt.

23 MR. TURNER: No, your Honor.

24 THE COURT: Great.

25 On the basis of Mr. Ghahremani's responses to me

hbk2ghaP kjc

1 questions, my observations of his demeanor here in court, and 2 the representations of counsel, I find that he is fully 3 competent to enter an informed plea of guilty at this time.

4 Mr. Ghahremani, have you received a copy of the 5 indictment, 15 Cr. 793, containing the charge to which you are 6 pleading guilty?

7 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

8 THE COURT: Have you read it?

9 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

10 THE COURT: Did you discuss it with Ms. DeBlasio?

11 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, several times.

12 THE COURT: And did you have enough time to talk to 13 her about the charge to which you are pleading guilty and any 14 possible defenses to that charge?

15 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor, I have.

16 THE COURT: Did she explain to you the rights that you
17 would be giving up by pleading guilty?

18 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

19 THE COURT: Are you satisfied with her representation
20 of you?

21 THE DEFENDANT: I am very satisfied, with
22 Ms. DeBlasio, yes, your Honor.

23 THE COURT: I have here a written advice of rights
24 form that appears to have been signed by you and Ms. DeBlasio, 25 dated today, November 20.

hbk2ghaP kjc

1           If you can see it from there, I'm showing you page 2,
2 the signature page. If you can see it, is that your 3 signature?

4           THE DEFENDANT: That is my signature, your Honor.

5           THE COURT: And before you signed that form, did you
6 read it.

7           THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

8           THE COURT: Before you signed it, did you discuss it
9 with Ms. DeBlasio?

10          THE DEFENDANT: Yes, I did.

11          THE COURT: Did she explain it to you and answer any 12 questions you may have had before you signed the form?

13          THE DEFENDANT: Fully, yes, your Honor.

14          THE COURT: Did you fully understand the form before
15 you signed it?

16          THE DEFENDANT: I did fully understand it.

17          THE COURT: I will mark this form as Exhibit 1 and 18 provide it to the government to retain in its possession after 19 this proceeding, but I'm going to go over many of the things
20 with you that are in the form just to ensure that you
21 understand what you are doing and the consequences of what you
22 are doing.

23           Under the Constitution and laws of the United States,
24 you have the right to plead not guilty to the charges in the 25 indictment.

hbk2ghaP kjc

1           Do you understand that?

2           THE DEFENDANT: I do understand that, your Honor.

3           THE COURT: If you did plead not guilty, you would be
4 entitled to a speedy and public trial by a jury on the charges
5 in the indictment.

6           Do you understand that?

7           THE DEFENDANT: I do understand that, your Honor.

8           THE COURT: At that trial, you would be presumed to be 9 innocent and you would not have to prove that you were 10 innocent. Instead, the government would be required to prove 11 your guilt by competent evidence beyond a reasonable doubt
12 before a jury could find you guilty.

13          Do you understand that?

14          THE DEFENDANT: I do understand that, your Honor.

15          THE COURT: In order to find you guilty, a jury of 12
16 people would have to agree unanimously that you were guilty.

17          Do you understand that?

18          THE DEFENDANT: I do.

19          THE COURT: At that trial, and at every stage of your 20 case, you would be entitled to be represented by a lawyer; and 21 if you could not afford a lawyer, one would be appointed at 22 public expense, free of cost, to represent you.

23          Do you understand that?

24          THE DEFENDANT: I do understand that, your Honor.

25          THE COURT: During a trial, the witnesses for the

hbk2ghaP kjc

1 government would be required to come to court and testify in 2 your presence, and your lawyer would have an opportunity to 3 cross-examine them and object to evidence that the government
4 would offer against you at trial.

5 You would also have an opportunity to introduce 6 evidence on your own behalf, and you would have the right to 7 have subpoenas issued or other process used to compel witnesses
8 to come to court and testify in your defense.

9 Do you understand all that?

10 THE DEFENDANT: I do understand that, your Honor.

11 THE COURT: At a trial, you would also have the right
12 to testify on your own behalf if you chose to do so, but you
13 would have the right not to testify as well; and if you chose 14 not to testify, then no one -- including the jury -- could draw
15 any inference or suggestion of your guilt from the fact that 16 you did not testify.

17 Do you understand that?

18 THE DEFENDANT: I do understand that, yeah.

19 THE COURT: Before a trial, you would have an 20 opportunity, if you have not waived it, to seek suppression or 21 exclusion of any evidence that the government would introduce 22 against you at a trial.

23 Do you understand that?

24 THE DEFENDANT: I do understand that, your Honor.

25 THE COURT: If you were convicted at a trial, you

hbk2ghaP kjc

1 would have the right to appeal that verdict and any pretrial
2 rulings that I made in your case.

3 Do you understand that?

4 THE DEFENDANT: I do understand that, your Honor.

5 THE COURT: If you plead guilty, you will also have to 6 give up your right not to incriminate yourself because I may 7 ask you questions about what you did in order to satisfy myself
8 that you are guilty as charged, and you will have to admit and 9 acknowledge your guilt.

10 Do you understand that?

11 THE DEFENDANT: I do, your Honor.

12 THE COURT: Now, in connection with what I asked you
13 before about the right to appeal any pretrial rulings, you may 14 recall that your lawyers earlier in this case filed a motion on 15 your behalf, but you subsequently withdrew that motion.

16 Do you understand that?

17 THE DEFENDANT: I do, your Honor, yes.

18 THE COURT: And do you understand that, by pleading
19 guilty, you are giving up your ability to raise that issue on 20 appeal, even though you didn't even pursue it here?

21 Do you understand that?

22 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, I do, your Honor.

23 THE COURT: Now, if you plead guilty and if I accept
24 your plea, you will give up your right to a trial and the other 25 rights that we have just discussed, other than your right to a

hbk2ghaP kjc

1           lawyer, which you will keep whether or not you plead guilty,
2           but there will be no trial and I will enter a judgment of 3           guilty and sentence you on the basis of your plea after I have 4           received a presentence report prepared by the United States
5           Probation Department and any submissions that I get from the 6           lawyers. There will be no appeal with respect to whether you
7           did or did not commit the charge to which you are pleading
8           guilty and there will be no appeal with respect to whether the 9           government could or could not use the evidence that it has 10          against you.

11           Do you understand all of that?

12           THE DEFENDANT: Yes, I do, your Honor.

13           THE COURT: Even now, as you are entering this guilty
14          plea, you have a right to change your mind, to plead not 15          guilty, and to go to trial on the charges in the indictment.

16           Do you understand that?

17           THE DEFENDANT: I do, your Honor.

18           THE COURT: Do you understand each and every one of 19          the rights that we have just discussed?

20           THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

21           THE COURT: And are you willing to give up your right
22          to a trial and the other rights that we have discussed?

23           THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

24           THE COURT: All right. Do you understand that you are 25          charged in Count One with conspiring to import into the United

hbk2ghaP kjc

1 States, for purposes of distribution, certain controlled
2 substances, namely, five kilograms or more of mixtures and 3 substances containing a detectable amount of cocaine, in 4 violation of Title 21 United States Code § 963.

5 Do you understand that that is the charge?

6 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, I do, your Honor.

7 THE COURT: Mr. Turner, would you please state the 8 elements of that offense?

9 MR. TURNER: Yes, your Honor. There are three:

10 First, the existence of the charged conspiracy to 11 import a controlled substance into the United States;

12 Second, that the defendant knowingly and intentionally
13 joined that conspiracy; and,

14 Third, that the controlled substance involved was five 15 kilograms or more of mixtures and substances containing a 16 detectable amount of cocaine.

17 And the government would also be required to prove 18 that venue is proper in the Southern District of New York by a 19 preponderance of the evidence.

20 THE COURT: Thank you.

21 Mr. Ghahremani, do you understand that, with the 22 exception of the venue requirement that Mr. Turner mentioned at 23 the end, "venue" being that the case is properly tried or 24 prosecuted in this district, that with the exception of that 25 element as to which the government's burden at a trial would be

hbk2ghaP kjc

1 a preponderance of the evidence, that if you were to go to 2 trial, the government would be required to prove each of the 3 other elements beyond a reasonable doubt before a jury could 4 find you guilty?

5 Do you understand that?

6 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, I do, your Honor.

7 THE COURT: Let me tell you about the maximum possible
8 sentences for this crime. By "maximum" I mean the most that 9 could possibly be imposed upon you. It doesn't mean that that 10 is the sentence that you will receive, but you have to 11 understand that, by pleading guilty, you are exposing yourself
12 to a combination of punishments up to the maximum that I am
13 going to tell you.

14 Do you understand that?

15 THE DEFENDANT: Yes. Yes, I do, your Honor.

16 THE COURT: All right.

17 Now, let me start with the possible restrictions on 18 your liberty. The maximum term of imprisonment for this crime
19 is life in prison, which could be followed by up to a lifetime
20 term of supervised release. "Supervised release" means that 21 you would be subject to supervision by the probation
22 department. There would be rules of supervised release that 23 you would be required to follow, and if you violated those 24 rules, you could be returned to prison to serve additional time 25 without a jury trial and without credit for time spent on your

hbk2ghaP kjc

1 underlying sentence or time spent on post-release supervision.

2                   Do you understand all that?

3                   THE DEFENDANT: Yes, I do, your Honor.

4                   THE COURT: You should understand that there is no
5 parole in the federal system in this country, which means that 6 if you were sentenced to prison, you would not be released
7 early on parole. There is a limited opportunity to earn credit
8 for good behavior, but if you were sentenced to prison, you
9 would have to serve at least 85 percent of the time to which 10 you were sentenced.

11                  Do you understand that?

12                  THE DEFENDANT: Yes, I do, your Honor.

13                  THE COURT: In addition to those restrictions on your 14 liberty, the maximum possibility punishment also includes
15 certain financial penalties:

16                  First, the maximum allowable fine is the greatest of 17 $10 million or twice the gross pecuniary, that is, financial,
18 gain derived from the offense or twice the gross pecuniary, or 19 financial, loss to someone other than you as a result of the 20 offense.

21                  Second, I can order restitution to any person or 22 entity injured as a result of your criminal conduct.

23                  Third, I can order you to forfeit all property derived 24 from the offense or used to facilitate the offense. And on 25 that front, I note that in the plea agreement we will discuss

hbk2ghaP kjc

1 shortly you admit to the forfeiture allegation with respect to 2 Count One of the indictment.

3 And, finally, I must order a mandatory special
4 assessment of $100.

5 Do you understand that those are the maximum possible
6 penalties?

7 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor, I do.

8 THE COURT: In addition to understanding the maximum 9 possible penalties, you should understand that the crime to 10 which you are pleading guilty carries certain mandatory minimum
11 penalties, that is, absent a motion by the government or my 12 finding, which we will discuss in a moment in more detail, that 13 you qualify for what is known as the safety valve, that there
14 would be a mandatory minimum term of imprisonment, namely, ten 15 years, which would be followed by a mandatory minimum of at 16 least five years of supervised release. That is, absent a 17 motion by the government or my finding that you qualify for the 18 safety valve, I would be required to impose at least ten years
19 of imprisonment followed by at least five years of supervised
20 release.

21 Do you understand that?

22 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, I do, your Honor.

23 THE COURT: Now in this case, even though there is 24 that mandatory minimum, my understanding from the plea 25 agreement, which we will discuss shortly, is that the

hbk2ghaP kjc

1 government agrees, at least for now, that you qualify for the 2 so-called safety valve, that is, a statutory provision that
3 says if you meet certain conditions, that the court is allowed
4 to sentence you without regard for the mandatory minimum. You
5 get some credit under the guidelines; but, more importantly,
6 I'm not required to impose the mandatory minimum sentence of 7 ten years. I can go below that.

8 Do you understand that?

9 THE DEFENDANT: I do, your Honor.

10 THE COURT: Do you understand that in order for you to 11 qualify, I need to make the determination that you qualify,
12 namely, that you meet the five requirements, or conditions, for 13 the so-called safety valve, and I'm not going to do that today.
14 I will do that at the time of sentencing. And you will be 15 bound by your guilty plea whether I find that you qualify for 16 the so-called safety value or not.

17 Do you understand that?

18 THE DEFENDANT: I do, your Honor.

19 THE COURT: Are you a citizen of the United States? I
20 take it not.

21 THE DEFENDANT: No, I am not.

22 THE COURT: Do you understand that, as a result of 23 your guilty plea, there may be adverse effects on your 24 immigration status; that you may, for example, be detained by 25 the immigration authorities following the completion of your

hbk2ghaP kjc

1       criminal sentence; that you may be removed or deported from the 2       United States; that you may be denied admission to the United 3       States; and that you may be denied citizenship in the United 4       States.

5                  Do you understand that those are some of the adverse 6       immigration consequences of a guilty plea?

7                  THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor, I do.

8                  THE COURT: Have you discussed the potential
9       immigration consequences of your guilty plea with your 10      lawyers?

11                 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, I have.

12                 THE COURT: Now, on this subject, my understanding is 13       that, in the plea agreement we will discuss shortly, you have 14       actually agreed to the entry of an order of -- let me find the 15       actual language -- entry of a stipulated judicial order of 16       removal pursuant to Title 8 United States Code § 1228(c)(5),
17       that is, essentially you have agreed that I can sign an order
18       directing that you be removed to Norway either upon the 19       completion of your -- well, upon the completion of your 20       sentence.

21                 Is that correct?

22                 THE DEFENDANT: That is correct, your Honor.

23                 THE COURT: I have here a proposed order supported by 24       various documents, including one that appears to have been 25       signed by you and Ms. DeBlasio. Is that correct?

hbk2ghaP kjc

1                   THE DEFENDANT: That's correct, your Honor.

2                   THE COURT: I'm showing you the page with your
3 signature dated today. Is that your signature there?

4                   THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

5                   THE COURT: Very good.

6                   Do you, in fact, consent to my signing the stipulated
7 order of removal?

8                   THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

9                   THE COURT: All right.

10                  Do you understand that as a result of your guilty
11 plea, you may also lose certain valuable civil rights in this 12 country, to the extent that you have them or could otherwise
13 obtain them, such as, the right to vote, the right to hold 14 public office, the right to serve on a jury, and the right to 15 possess any kind of firearm?

16                  Do you understand that?

17                  THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

18                  THE COURT: Are you serving any other sentence?

19                  THE DEFENDANT: No, your Honor.

20                  THE COURT: No other sentence in any other country?

21                  THE DEFENDANT: No, your Honor.

22                  THE COURT: And are you being prosecuted in any other 23 court at this time?

24                  THE DEFENDANT: No, your Honor.

25                  THE COURT: Do you understand that if your lawyers or

hbk2ghaP kjc

1 anyone else have attempted to predict what your sentence will
2 be in this case, that their predictions could be wrong?

3 Do you understand that?

4 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

5 THE COURT: It is important for you to understand that
6 no one -- not your lawyers, not the government lawyers, no
7 one -- can give you any promise or assurance to what your 8 sentence will be in this case, and that is because your 9 sentence will be determined by me and by me alone, and I'm not 10 going to do that today. Instead, I will wait until I receive
11 the presentence report prepared by the United States Probation
12 Department that I mentioned earlier, I will do my own
13 calculation of how the sentencing guidelines apply to your case
14 and consider any possible departures from the guidelines range, 15 I will consider any submissions I get from the lawyers, and 16 ultimately the factors that are set forth in a statute that 17 governs sentencing, Title 18 United States Code § 3553(a).

18 Do you understand all that?

19 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, I do, your Honor.

20 THE COURT: And have you discussed that process, the 21 sentencing process, with your lawyers?

22 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, several times, your Honor.

23 THE COURT: Even if your sentence is different from 24 what your lawyers or anyone else has told you that it might be, 25 even if it is different from what you hope or expect it to be,

hbk2ghaP kjc

1 and even if it is different from what may be in the plea
2 agreement with the government that we will discuss in a moment,
3 you will still be bound by your guilty plea and you will not be
4 allowed to withdraw your plea.

5 Do you understand that?

6 THE DEFENDANT: I do, your Honor.

7 THE COURT: Now, I understand that there is a written 8 plea agreement that you and your lawyers have entered into with 9 the lawyers for the government.

10 Is that correct?

11 THE DEFENDANT: That is correct.

12 THE COURT: I have the original letter plea agreement here, dated November 16, 2017, from United States Attorneys 13 Crowley and Turner, to your lawyers Mr. Feitel and 14 Ms. DeBlasio. I will mark this as Court Exhibit 2 and provide 15 it to the government to retain in its possession after this 16 proceeding.

18 I am also showing you the last page, where you appear
19 to have signed, dated today, November 20, as well.

20 If you can see it from there, is that your signature
21 there?

22 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

23 THE COURT: Before you signed the plea agreement, did
24 you read it?

25 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, I did.

hbk2ghaP kjc

1                   THE COURT: Before you signed it, did you discuss it
2 with Ms. DeBlasio?

3                   THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

4                   THE COURT: Did she answer whatever questions you may 5 have had and explain the form to you?

6                   THE DEFENDANT: Yes. She explained everything, your 7 Honor.

8                   THE COURT: Before you signed the plea agreement, did
9 you fully understand it?

10                  THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor, I did.

11                  THE COURT: All right.

12                  Now, one of the features of your agreement is that you
13 have agreed with the government on how the United States
14 Sentencing Guidelines apply to your case. Is that correct?

15                  THE DEFENDANT: Is that correct, your Honor.

16                  THE COURT: It's important for you to understand that 17 that agreement is binding on you and it is binding on the 18 government, but it is not binding on me; that is, I have my own
19 independent obligation to determine what the correct guidelines
20 range is. I'm not suggesting to you that I will come up with a
21 different calculation than the one to which you have agreed,
22 but I could; and even if I did, you would still be bound by 23 your guilty plea and you would not be allowed to withdraw your 24 plea.

25                  Do you understand that?

hbk2ghaP kjc

1                   THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

2                   THE COURT: Now, another feature of your agreement is 3 that you have agreed to give up or waive your right to appeal
4 or otherwise challenge any sentence that is within or below the 5 stipulated sentencing guidelines range of 135 to 168 months in 6 prison. That means if I sentenced you to 168 months in prison
7 or anything less than 168 months in prison, you would still 8 be -- excuse me, you would not have any right to appeal or 9 challenge that sentence.

10                  Do you understand that?

11                  THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

12                  THE COURT: Does this written plea agreement
13 constitute your complete and total understanding of the entire 14 agreement between you and the government in this case?

15                  THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

16                  THE COURT: Has anything been left out of the written 17 plea agreement?

18                  THE DEFENDANT: No, your Honor.

19                  THE COURT: Has anyone made any promise or offered you
20 any inducement to either plead guilty or to sign the plea
21 agreement?

22                  THE DEFENDANT: No, your Honor.

23                  THE COURT: Has anyone threatened you or forced you to 24 plead guilty or to sign the plea agreement?

25                  THE DEFENDANT: No, your Honor.

hbk2ghaP kjc

1                   THE COURT: Has anyone made a promise to you as to 2 what your sentence will be?

3                   THE DEFENDANT: No, your Honor.

4                   THE COURT: All right. Mr. Ghahremani, I would like
5 you now to tell me in your own words what you did that makes 6 you believe that you are guilty of the crime charged in Count
7 One of the indictment.

8                   THE DEFENDANT: Between 2014 and 2015, I agreed with 9 my codefendant to attempt to procure weapons for people we 10 believed to be Mexican cartel members, understanding that the 11 weapons could be used to protect the shipments of drugs, five 12 kilos or more, to the United States.

13                  Among other steps, I put my codefendant in touch with 14 a confidential informant, and I paid for my codefendant to go
15 and meet the weapons suppliers and companies. I believed that 16 that's a violation of the U.S. law.

17                  THE COURT: When you did these things, did you 18 understand and know that the object and the purpose of 19 essentially the agreement that you had with others was to 20 import five kilograms or more of cocaine into the United 21 States?

22                  THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

23                  THE COURT: And did you understand and know that that 24 violated American law?

25                  THE DEFENDANT: I do understand and know, your Honor,

hbk2ghaP kjc

1 yes.

2 THE COURT: Mr. Turner, do you want to tell me what
3 the basis is for venue here?

4 MR. TURNER: Your Honor, the government proffers that,
5 in connection with this case, the defendant was first brought 6 to and arrested in the Southern District of New York,
7 specifically, Westchester Airport, in White Plains, New York,
8 your Honor.

9 THE COURT: Any dispute about that, Ms. DeBlasio?

10 MS. DeBLASIO: No, your Honor.

11 THE COURT: And let me ask you, Mr. Ghahremani, did
12 you understand and know that the purpose of the cocaine coming 13 here, that it was intended for distribution here in the United 14 States?

15 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

16 THE COURT: Ms. DeBlasio, have you discussed this
17 matter with Mr. Ghahremani?

18 MS. DeBLASIO: I have, your Honor.

19 THE COURT: I think I asked you that before. But are 20 you aware of any valid defense that would prevail at trial or 21 of any reason why Mr. Ghahremani should not be permitted to 22 plead guilty?

23 THE DEFENDANT: I am not aware of any valid defense or 24 why he should not be permitted to plead guilty.

25 THE COURT: Mr. Turner, any other questions that you

hbk2ghaP kjc

1 would like me to ask Mr. Ghahremani?

2 MR. TURNER: No, your Honor.

3 THE COURT: Would you please proffer briefly what the 4 government's evidence would be if the defendant were to go to 5 trial and what it would show.

6 MR. TURNER: Yes, your Honor.

7 The government's proof includes, among other evidence,
8 recordings of meetings involving the defendant and his
9 codefendant with multiple DEA confidential sources; documentary
10 evidence, including a weapons catalog provided by the defendant
11 and his codefendant to the confidential sources; videos sent by 12 the defendant to the sources showing his codefendant test
13 firing weapons; testimony from law enforcement officers who 14 conducted surveillance of these meetings; and testimony from 15 the DEA confidential sources who participated in those 16 meetings, your Honor.

17 THE COURT: All right. Do both counsel agree that 18 there is a sufficient factual basis for a guilty plea to Count
19 One?

20 MR. TURNER: Yes, your Honor.

21 MS. DeBLASIO: Yes, your Honor.

22 THE COURT: And does either counsel know of any reason
23 that I should not accept the defendant's plea of guilty.

24 MR. TURNER: No, Judge.

25 MS. DeBLASIO: No, your Honor.

hbk2ghaP kjc

1                   THE COURT: Okay. Mr. Ghahremani, because you
2 acknowledge that you are in fact guilty as charged in Count One
3 of the indictment, because I am satisfied that you know of your 4 rights, including your right to go to trial; because I find
5 that you are aware of the consequences of your guilty plea,
6 including the sentence that could be imposed upon you; and 7 because I find that you are knowingly and voluntarily pleading
8 guilty, I accept your guilty plea and enter a judgment of 9 guilty on Count One of the indictment.

10                  The probation department will want to interview you in 11 connection with its preparation of the presentence report that 12 I mentioned earlier. If you choose to speak with the probation
13 department, it is important that anything you say is truthful
14 and accurate. Among other things, that report is important to 15 me in deciding what sentence to impose upon you. Before 16 sentencing, you and your lawyers will have an opportunity to 17 review the report. I will urge you to review it with care, and 18 if you find any mistakes in the report or anything that you
19 want to bring to my attention in connection with your 20 sentencing, that you share that with your lawyers so that they 21 can do so in the proper manner.

22                  Do you understand that?

23                  THE DEFENDANT: Yes, I do, your Honor.

24                  THE COURT: Ms. DeBlasio, do you wish to be present in 25 connection with any interview?

hbk2ghaP kjc

1 MS. DeBLASIO: Yes, your Honor, I do.

2 THE COURT: I will order that no interview take place
3 unless counsel is present.

4 Sentencing will be set for March 1, 2018, at 3:30 in 5 the afternoon.

6 I direct the government to provide the probation
7 department with its factual statement of the offense within the 8 next seven days and defense counsel should arrange for the 9 defendant to be interviewed by probation within the next two 10 weeks.

11 In accordance with my individual rules and practices,
12 the defense submissions in connection with sentencing are due
13 two weeks prior to sentencing. Government submissions are due
14 one week prior to sentencing.

15 In the unlikely event that you don't intend to file a 16 substantive sentencing submission, you should file a letter to 17 that effect just so that we don't have to track you down.

18 Anything else, Mr. Turner?

19 MR. TURNER: No, your Honor.

20 THE COURT: Ms. DeBlasio?

21 MS. DeBLASIO: No. Thank you, your Honor.

22 THE COURT: All right. I wish everybody a very happy
23 Thanksgiving, and we are adjourned. Thank you.

24 MR. TURNER: Thank you.
